President's Message

Greetings Fellow CKIIA Members,

Happy New Year to you and hope you had a good Holiday Season. Your Central Kentucky IIA Chapter is kicking off our spring meeting schedule on January 24th. John Slavnik, Audit Director of Ashland Inc. and President of the Central Ohio IIA Chapter, will present on the topic of Risk Assessment. One and a half CPE hours will be awarded. Get your CPE requirements off to a good start in the new year! Perhaps you are a CPA or have one of IIA's own professional certifications:

- CIA (Certified Internal Auditor)
- CCSA (Certification in Control Self Assessment)
- CFSA (Certified Financial Services Auditor)
- CGAP (Certified Government Auditing Professional).

If you are not already certified or working towards certification, the beginning of a new year might be a good time to start. Our newsletter contains links to IIA's various certifications along with exam training self-study course information.

Registration and Cancellation Policy:

To cover meeting costs including meals, the CKIIA Board has approved a two business day cancellation policy for luncheon meetings. This means that for a Tuesday meeting starting at 11:30 AM, the cancellation must be received by 11:30 AM the Friday prior to the meeting. If the cancellation is not received by that date, the registrant is responsible for and will be billed for the meeting fee unless another attendee from the registrant's organization attends in the registrant's place.

April 10 - Save the Date!:

As mentioned in our December newsletter, we are planning an all-day fraud seminar on April 10th here in Lexington. Your Chapter has obtained approval from the IIA Headquarters and confirmed this speaking engagement with John J. Hall. Mr. Hall is a prominent business and motivational speaker, seminar instructor and consultant with Hall Consulting, Inc. from Colorado and we are very excited to have secured his services for this event. For over 21 years, John Hall has been leading training seminars and speaking at conferences in the US and around the world and normally appears at over 30 IIA Chapter events each education year. I was myself fortunate to attend a similar fraud seminar with Mr. Hall last year and he was a very engaging speaker who will provide for what is sure to be an interesting training session. Do not miss this event! More details to come in regards to registration information for this training seminar.

IMA Partnership:

We are continuing to share our newsletters with the leadership from the Bluegrass Chapter of the Institute of Management Accountants (IMA) in the hopes of seeing some of their members at our meetings throughout the year and vice versa. The IMA's next event will be a dinner meeting at DoubleTree Hotel on Richmond Road in Lexington taking place on January 19th with a planned starting time of 6:00 PM. The IMA's own Deanna Ramsey will educate the attendees about changes to the income tax law approaching it from an individual's perspective. The price of this meeting will be $25 and IMA president Jim Wallace accepts registrations until January 16th to jamesw92@insightbb.com.

Leadership/Volunteer Opportunities:

Your involvement in our Chapter is important as we continue to strive for excellence in serving the chapter, its members (You!) and the internal audit profession. We welcome your input and appreciate anyone willing to volunteer. As an example, we are looking for a newsletter editor for the chapter and officers/board members for the next Chapter Year. Please contact me if you are interested. Looking forward to continuing a productive Chapter Year!

Best Regards,

Gustav Pousette
