•Join me in congratulating our two newest CIAs: Laura Keyser & Vicki Hart Greetings Colleagues,

Happy spring, Thank you for your support and participation thus far this year. Our January and February events were well attended. We had a total of 46 attendees at the Fraud Seminar in February and 20 at our half-day seminar in January. Several of our members thoroughly enjoyed the February presenters and requested them back for next year. We also held the annual officers vote in February; the listing of new officers will be included in the May newsletter. We will be planning soon for next year so if you have any training suggestions, please let me know. I look forward to a successful year next year.

This newsletter will be short but packed with some useful information from the IIA Headquarters.

Please remember to report your CPE by May 31. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Best Regards,

Melissa Bender, CIA, CFE, CGAP, CCSA

Speak Your Mind

Last month, we announced the upcoming launch of InternalAuditorOnline's guest blog section, The Soapbox (http://auditexecutivenetwork.com/blogs/soapbox/) -- an open forum that gives audit practitioners the opportunity to exchange ideas and voice their opinions. Since then the blog has gone live, and we've begun featuring insightful, thought-provoking content from members of the audit community. We hope many more of you will take advantage of this unique opportunity to share your thoughts and communicate with a large audience of your peers. Visit our Submission Guidelines

Building an Internal Audit Function

(http://www.theiia.org/intAuditor/free-feature/2011/february/building-an-internal-auditfunction/)

By Susan Burch

Whether creating a new audit function or transforming an existing one, CAEs need to understand all of the critical components of a successful shop -- everything from audit methodology to gaining stakeholder support. An effective implementation plan includes determining how the organization wants to engage and benefit from internal auditing and how it can help ensure the achievement of organizational goals.
