Congratulations Aimee!

Congratulations to FWC Chapter member Aimee Grab who has been recognized as a 2022 Emerging Leader by Internal Auditor Magazine.

Aimee was one of 15 auditors selected from a global pool of nominees whose nominations were reviewed by a panel of internal audit professionals. She is profiled in the October issue of the magazine (linked here), with an excerpt below:

"Aimee Grab enjoys building personal relationships with her internal audit teams to create a sense of togetherness when completing tasks. "The connections I make while at work, either remotely or while conducting fieldwork, are what drive my day-to-day passion," Grab says. In a past role, she used this positive nature on a trip to Israel, where she performed walk-through meetings on an external audit for one of the world's largest advertising agencies. "It was my first project, so I was determined to learn and grow as quickly as possible to keep up with the fast-paced time line," she says. Now, she's focused on helping Nielsen Global Media roll out a major innovation to change the way it measures, presents, and does business with its clients."
