

CIA Exam Review

The official partner of The IIA

Becker is committed to enhancing your IIA chapter members' professional capabilities through comprehensive, career-building opportunities. To help internal auditors earn their Certified Internal Auditor credential, we partnered with The Institute of Internal Auditors® to create the Becker–The IIA CIA® Exam Review. Becoming a CIA can help members of your chapter build valuable skills, accelerate their careers and stand out in the profession, and Becker can make this possible.

By providing a path to CIA certification, you're demonstrating a commitment to individual development and growth while elevating your chapter as a whole.

Driving success in internal auditing: Becker's commitment to IIA Chapters

Becker offers custom programs to IIA chapters to help your members pass the CIA Exam. Our expert instructors offer both live and virtual sessions to guide CIA candidates through each exam part to complement what they've learned through self-study. Below are some models we've found to be successful that can benefit your member organizations:

-  Workshop model: Combination of live or virtual workshops with a Becker instructor plus the CIA Exam Review course
-  Multi-day intensive: Choose multiple, consecutive day-long sessions conducted live with a Becker CIA instructor
-  Single or multiple parts: Choose instruction in a single part or all three

Why choose Becker's CIA Exam Review

The Becker-The IIA CIA® Exam Review was created in partnership with The IIA. With their exam-aligned content taught by our expert instructors using our proven methodology, we make sure candidates are not only prepared to pass the exam, but they also hold the advanced skills necessary to adapt to evolving changes and solve modern challenges in internal auditing.

- Comprehensive study materials: In-depth digital textbooks, interactive learning tools, and personalized practice tests built through adaptive learning provide thorough exam preparation.
- Alignment with The IIA's exam syllabus: We partner with The IIA to ensure exam materials are up-to-date and will reflect what is on the CIA Exam.
- Customizable study planner: Candidates can customize their study planner to meet their timeline and stay on track to pass the exam.
- Expert instructors: The curriculum is designed and taught by CIAs and experienced audit professionals with decades of practical experience.
- Unlimited academic support: When candidates have questions, Becker has answers! With Newt™, Becker's AI study tool, candidates can ask questions directly in the platform and get immediate clarity, while our academic support team is available for more complex questions and challenges.
