

The Institute of Internal Auditors

Ozarks

I'd like to start by saying thank you to everyone that attended the CPE event presented by John Hall on fraud. He is always a great speaker, and I hope everyone found it informative and worth the investment. We did have some challenges with the venue, so thank you for your patience as we try to find new venues for our events.

The Board and Programs Committee have continued actively searching and planning for valuable and affordable CPE opportunities for our members. We will continue to communicate upcoming CPE events to be held by our chapter as well as sharing CPE events held by other chapters within our District. We have some exciting events in the works for the next 12 months, so be on the lookout for more information regarding the events.

Also, we are always looking for volunteers to serve on committees or just help with events as needed, so please reach out to me or another member of the board if you have ideas for events, an interest in serving on a committee, or just want to learn more about what the Ozarks IIA has to offer!

Finally, I hope everyone has a very Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year!!!

Thank you all for supporting the Ozarks Chapter!

Core Principles

The Core Principles, above all, define tangible internal audit effectiveness. When all Principles are present and operating cohesively, internal audit function achieves maximum efficiency. Though the way every internal auditor approaches these Core Principles may vary from organization to organization, there's no denying that a failure to achieve any of the principles would signal an internal audit activity that's not performing at its absolute best.

As we enter a new year, there is no better time to examine all you accomplished in 2022 and where you and your auditing practice are headed in 2023.

The IIA encourages you to leverage our resources to help you establish and achieve your audit objectives and wishes you all the best in 2023.
