President's Message

Greetings Members of the IIA Oklahoma City Chapter,

The end of 2024 is fast approaching, and a significant moment is upon us with the upcoming election season. While our chapter remains nonpartisan, this time offers a chance for all of us to reflect on our values, engage in meaningful conversations, and consider the impact of our work on our community.

October was a fantastic month for our chapter. We enjoyed a strong turnout for our event with Bryan Greenwood at Bricktown Brewery, where we delved into essential topics on internal controls and anti-money laundering. Attendees also had the unique experience of examining real gold and silver bars!

Looking ahead, we have two exciting CPE opportunities for you to complete your year of professional growth. First, our fall seminar with Dr. Toby Groves has been rescheduled to December 3rd, offering a comprehensive 8-hour CPE credit course on “The New Psychology of Fraud”. This seminar will run from 8:00am until 5:00pm, so please mark your calendars.

Additionally, Erin Hicks, a senior consultant from the Addison Group, will join us for a 1-hour FREE CPE event on November 21st from 11:30am until 1:00pm at Ted's Café Escondido (NW 68th and May Avenue). She'll be presenting “War for Talent”, focusing on the challenges of the Oklahoma job market and how they impact our field.

I would also like to congratulate Jon Desouza, our chapter Secretary, for being approved by our Board to take on the role of President-Elect! Jon has done an excellent job with the newsletter and securing guest speakers and I know he will continue to do great things for our chapter. If you or anyone you know (or want to voluntell) would like to volunteer to help out with our chapter please don't hesitate to reach out to myself or any of our other officers.

Best Regards,

Cory Brown

2024 AuditSphere: A Virtual Conference for Small Audit Teams – Dec 5th

According to The IIA's recent Member Survey, over 70% of small audit teams struggle with managing diverse workloads, and more than 50% grapple with keeping up with regulations and technical expertise. AuditSphere Virtual Conference

Chapter Beginnings:

It's hard to imagine, but it has been 75 years since the Oklahoma City Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors, Inc. was established. On September 1, 1949 an initial group of 18 internal audit professionals founded the local chapter, passed the by-laws and elected the original officers and one governor.
