

FY24 IIA Memphis Chapter Officers

June 1, 2023 thru May 31, 2024

President

Ashanti Clark

Ashanti Clark has been full-time with FedEx Internal Audit for 15 years and is currently an Executive Advisor reporting to Rita J. Cowans, VP of Internal Audit. As an Executive Advisor, she is involved in many departmental projects related to policy compliance, process improvement, and overall organizational efficiency. As a Risk Liaison, she is heavily involved in developing the department's risk assessment methodology used to identify and evaluate risks for inclusion in the annual Internal Audit business plan. Receiving a FedEx Five Star award, the company's most prestigious honor, was one of her greatest professional accomplishments. This award recognizes employees whose contributions demonstrate innovation, collaboration, efficiency, and profitability. She also lends her time and efforts to creating team-oriented programs and initiatives to boost employee moral as one of the company's Culture Ambassadors.

She previously served as Vice President of the Institute of Internal Auditors, Memphis Chapter where she assisted the President in overseeing the development of continuing education programs for local professionals. During her term, the chapter has maintained their gold status while successfully navigating the post-COVID challenges and transitioning to a virtual training environment. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accountancy from the University of Tennessee in Knoxville and is the mother of three boys ranging in age from college to elementary school. She is currently pursuing her CIA designation and is scheduled to complete all parts by May 2023.
