

JENNIFER PACHECO, DIRECTOR
AUDIT, RISK AND COMPLIANCE SERVICES DIVISION
NC OFFICE OF THE STATE CONTROLLER

Jennifer joined the North Carolina Office of the State Controller in 2008, bringing her expertise to the Audit, Risk, and Compliance Services Division. She initially focused on the State's Internal Control Program, known as the EAGLE Program, and Internal Audit functions. Over the years, she took on increasing responsibilities, eventually leading the Statewide Taxation and Cost Allocation Programs.

In 2022, Jennifer was appointed Director of the Audit, Risk, and Compliance Services Division and currently serves as the Chief Audit Executive for the Office of the State Controller. In this role, she provides strategic oversight of internal audit, enterprise risk management, and compliance initiatives across state government, supporting transparency, accountability, and operational excellence.
